Everything started from a polaroid...

Everything started from a polaroid... A polaroid showing an unusual Paul McCartney in a funny and relaxed pose as inspiring element for the new collection.

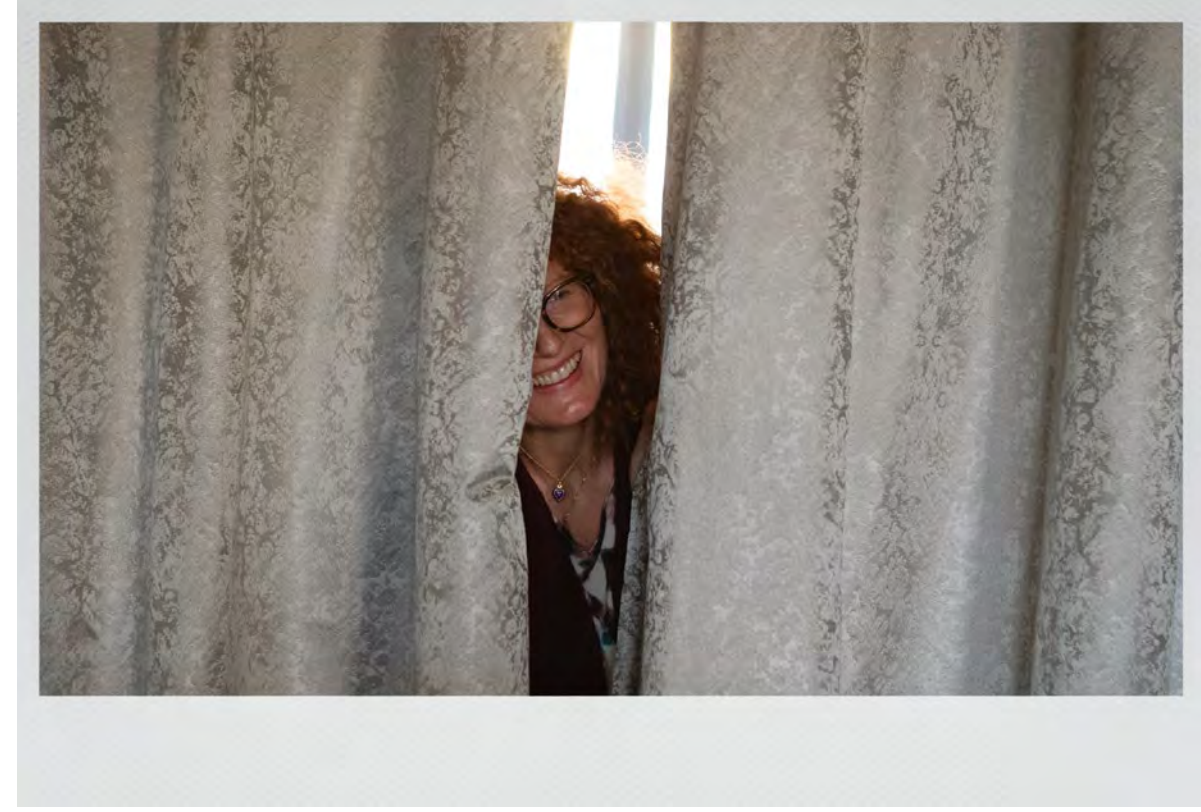

Both have a pop spirit and the same free and playful approach to the world.

Textiles - made of various "layers" of textures, patterns and colours too - evoke a tactile experience. Esthetic is functional both to decoration and performance.

Techniques and know-how are fundamental. Combinations are endless...

RUBELLI

2020 Collection

Our world is a world of great beauty, one where we create textiles, wallcoverings and furniture that add comfort and beauty wherever they are used.

Each year brings a new challenge and new excitement. We have created precious silk fabrics to be used with love and high-performance products to be used without reservations, with beauty a key factor in both cases.

My hope is that you will appreciate and enjoy our work which comes from the experience and passion of my talented team, and that you will “play” with our collections to create endless combinations that can make your rooms memorable.

This book offers inspiration and emotions. We have mixed delicate brocades with easy-care textures, decorated both traditional and contemporary interiors, proposed opulent as well as simple decorations. There is no limit to what you can do with Rubelli products, now also including Peter Marino’s design vision. Thank you for your precious support, and now...

Nicolò Favaretto Rubelli

Il nostro è un mondo fatto di bellezza: le nostre creazioni – tessuti, carte da parati, mobili – sono sinonimo di bellezza e comfort. Ogni anno è una nuova sfida, ed ogni anno si rinnova l’entusiasmo. Presentiamo sete preziose da trattare con amore, così come tessuti ad alte prestazioni da trattare senza timore. In entrambi i casi la ricerca della bellezza è al primo posto. Spero che apprezzerete il nostro lavoro, frutto dell’esperienza e della passione dei miei bravi collaboratori, e che vorrete “giocare” con le nostre collezioni, combinandole a piacere per rendere i vostri progetti unici e memorabili. Questo libro saprà ispirarvi ed emozionarvi. Abbiamo accostato broccati delicati a tessuti indistruttibili, vestito ambienti contemporanei e classici, suggerito decorazioni opulente e minimaliste: non c’è limite a quello che potete realizzare con Rubelli – ora anche con la capsule collection firmata dal geniale Peter Marino. Grazie per il vostro prezioso supporto e adesso... fate il vostro gioco!

‘Venice for me is magical and it aligns with one of my main obsessions: light. I want light in all of my work, and the light on the water in the canals makes me absolutely crazy with joy; I could spend the rest of my life sitting looking at it.’

Peter Marino

Peter Marino

Peter Marino for Venetian Heritage is a capsule collection of fabrics designed by the celebrated American architect who, in three luxurious silk jacquards Lucente, Tiepolo and Marino, has given a masterful display of his immense love for Venice, recreating that magic of the light and water that makes this city unique.

The irregular lines in Lucente run across the shiny silk satin ground like small waves on quiet water. Tiepolo shines in infinite colour shades referencing the technique of light of the great Veneto artist whose name it bears. Marino, more dynamic, puts across all the energy of a turbulent sea with its wavy curves.

Three splendid fabrics, conveying light and magic. Ideal for decoration.

Fabrics that bear witness to the talent and know-how of Rubelli, who each year produces collections in which aesthetics and function are indispensable and indissoluble factors.

With strong support from a design department manned by creative staff with solid technical and cultural skills and its own mill in Como where research and experimentation are a must, Rubelli is also able to develop and produce bespoke articles to its clients’ designs and proposals.

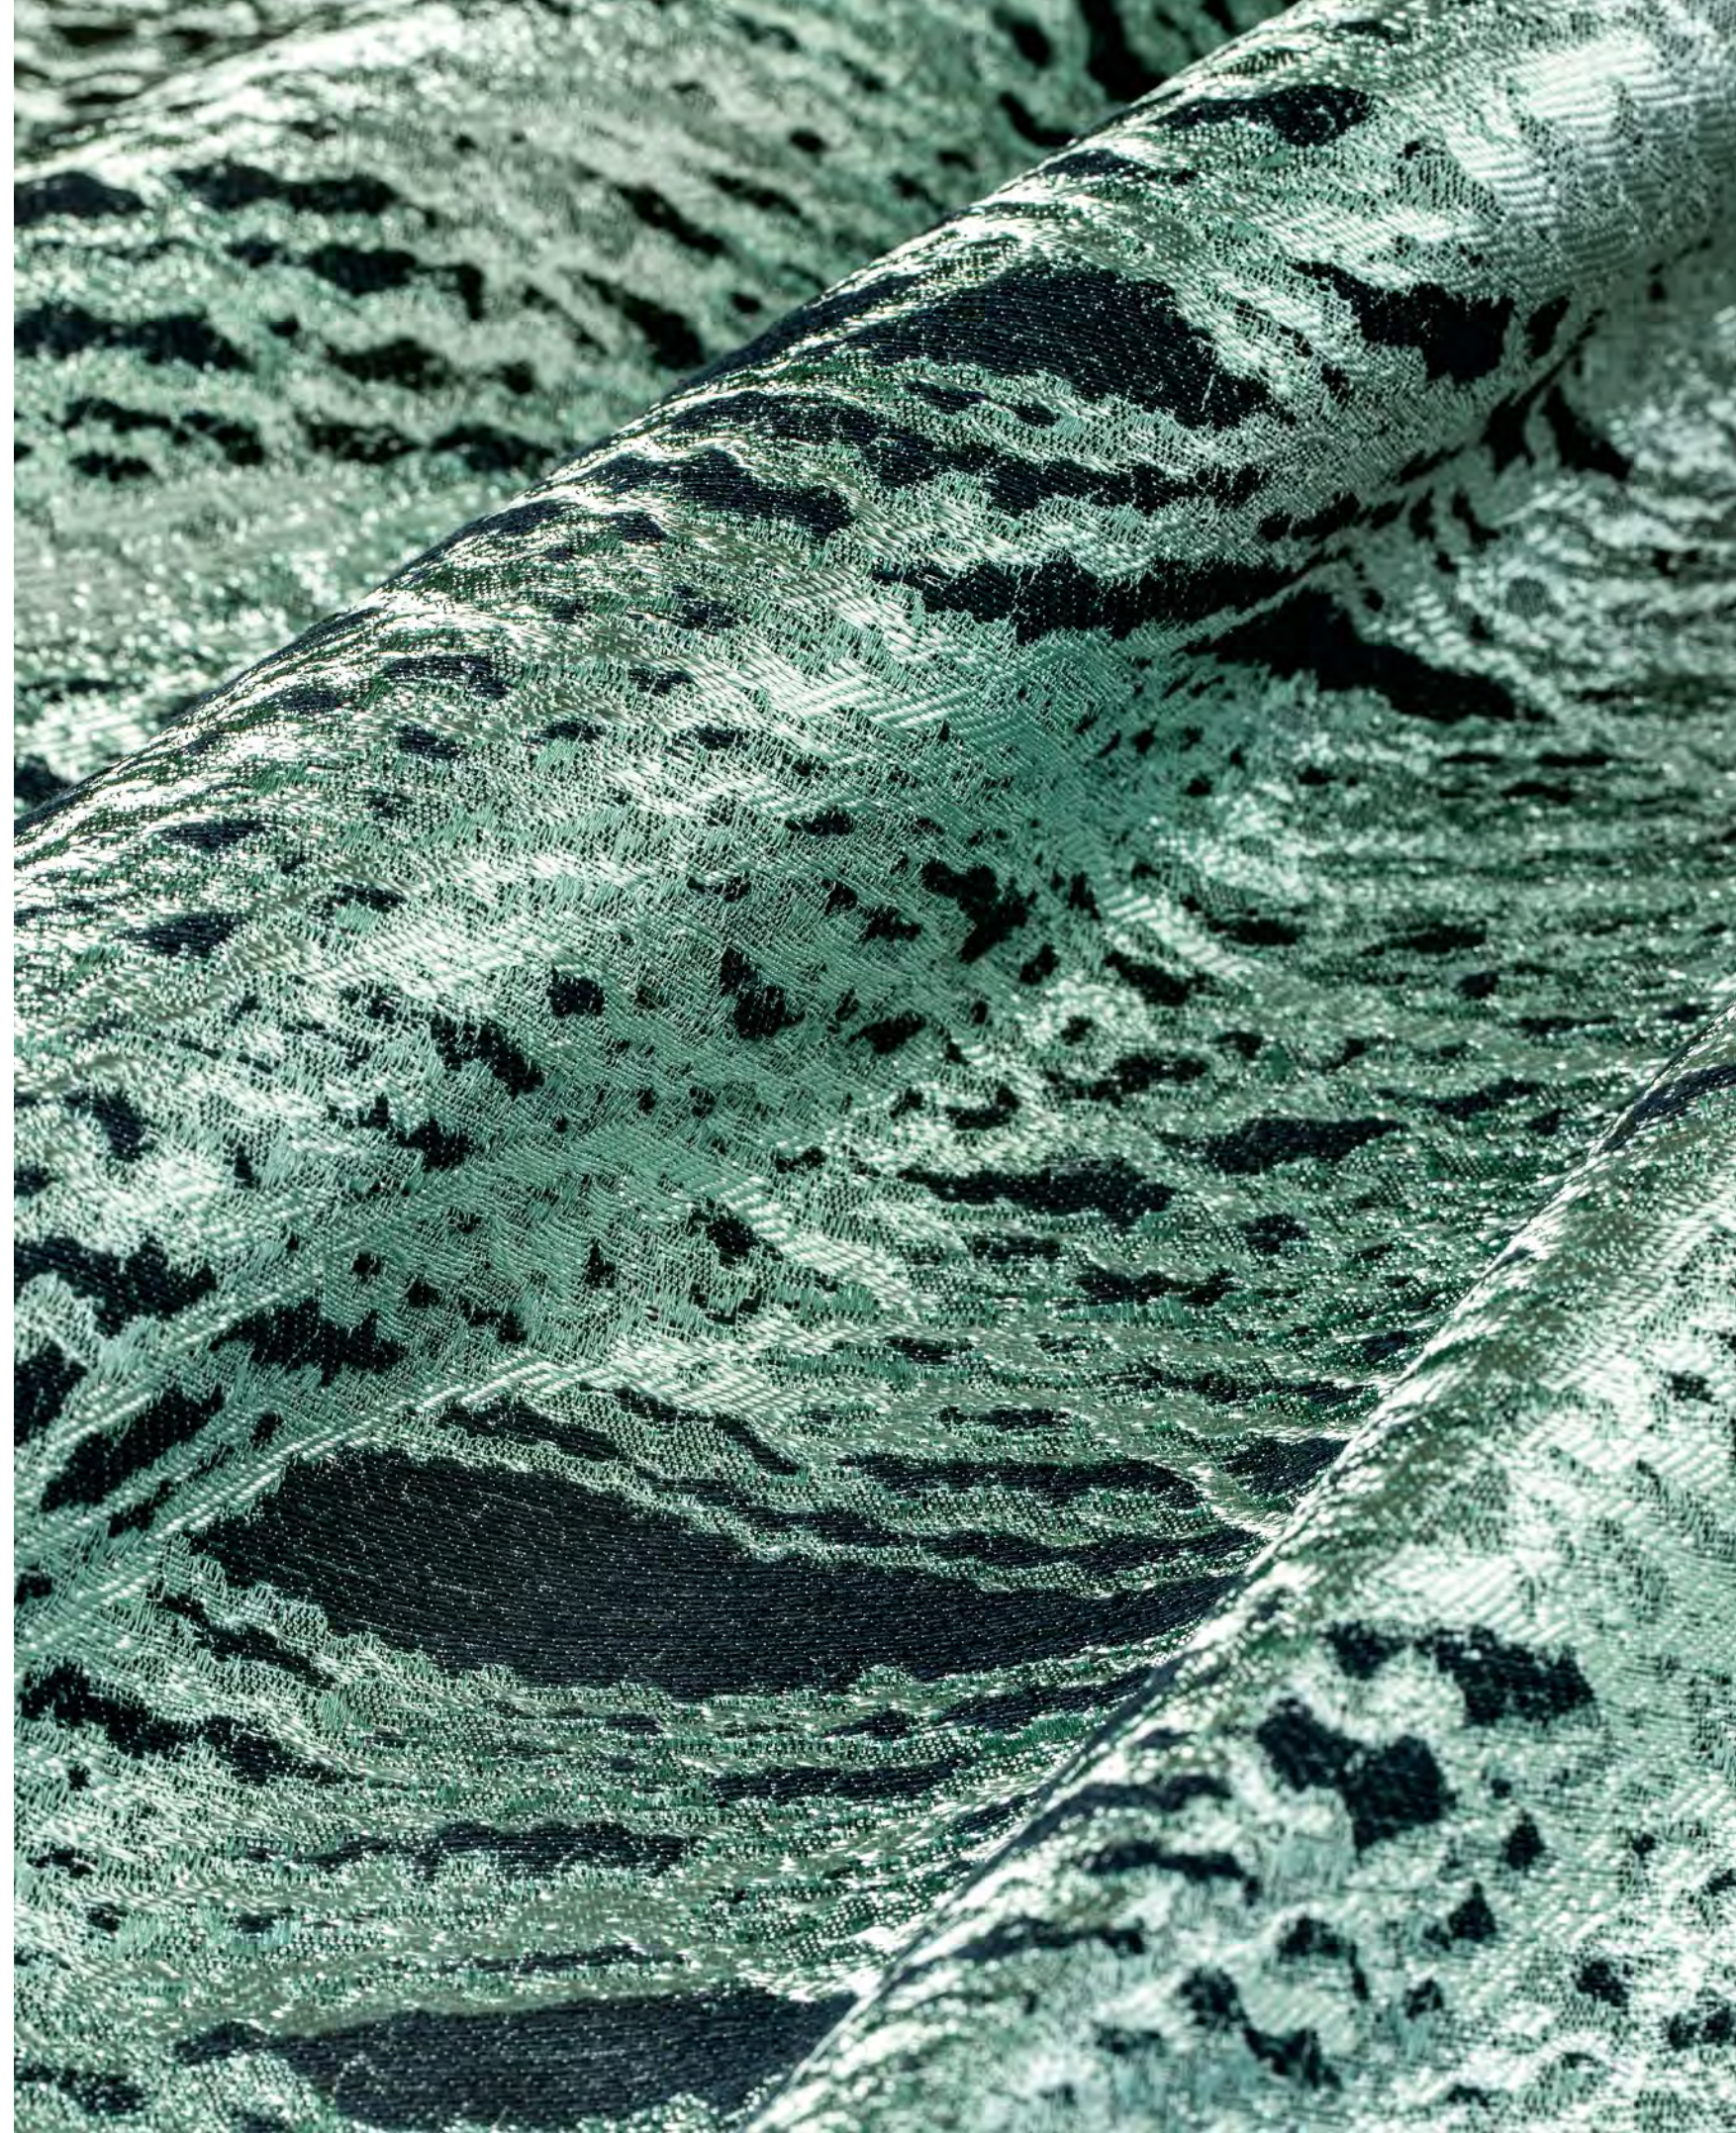

“Peter Marino for Venetian Heritage” is a very special and very Venetian project.

Very special in that it is a capsule collection added to the high-end collaborations with great artists and personalities that distinguish Rubelli’s ultra-centenary history.

Very Venetian, not just because, like the great painters of the eighteenth century such as Tiepolo and Titian, it celebrates the enchantment of the light and water of a unique city magnificently, but also because part of the proceeds from this collection will go to support the association Venetian Heritage, of which Peter Marino himself is President.

Peter Marino for Venetian Heritage: una capsule collection di tessuti firmata dal celebre architetto americano che in tre preziosi jacquard di seta – Lucente, Tiepolo e Marino – ha espresso magistralmente il suo immenso amore per Venezia, ricreando quella magia della luce e dell'acqua che rende questa città unica.

In Lucente le linee irregolari percorrono il lucido fondo in raso di seta come piccole onde su acque tranquille. Tiepolo riluce in infinite sfumature di colore che rimandano alla tecnica luminosa del grande pittore veneto di cui porta il nome. Marino, più dinamico, con le sue curve ondegianti trasmette tutta l'energia di un mare agitato.

Tre splendidi tessuti, messaggeri di luce e di magia. E ideali per la decorazione.

Tessuti che attestano il talento e il know-how di Rubelli, che ogni anno elabora collezioni in cui estetica e funzionalità sono elementi imprescindibili e inscindibili.

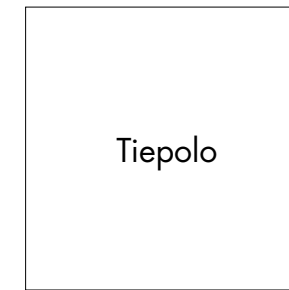

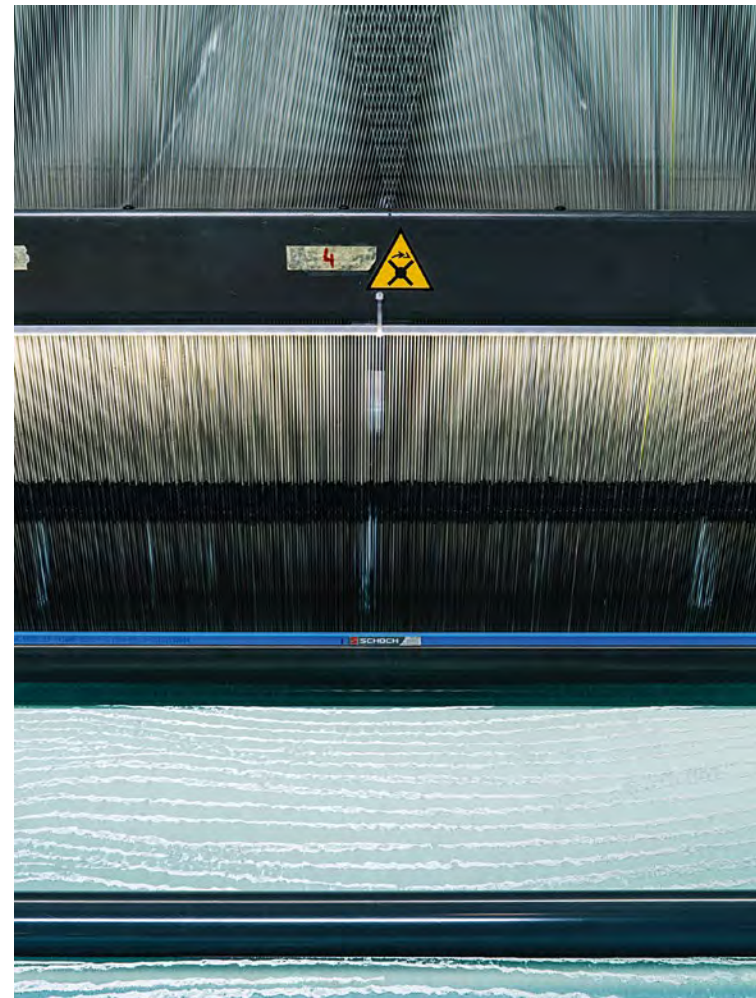

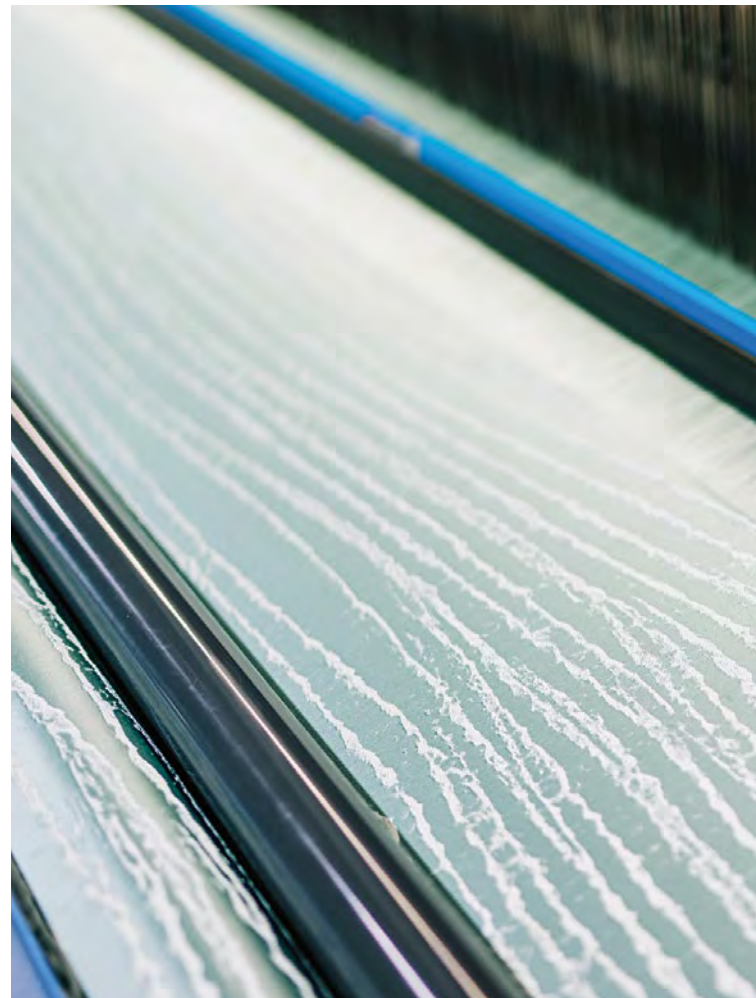

Forte di un ufficio stile in cui opera uno staff creativo con solide competenze tecniche e culturali, e di una tessitura di proprietà a Como, in cui ricerca e sperimentazione sono un imperativo, Rubelli è in grado di sviluppare e produrre anche articoli bespoke su progetti e proposte dei suoi clienti.

“Peter Marino for Venetian Heritage” è un progetto molto speciale e molto veneziano.

Molto speciale, perché è una capsule collection che va ad aggiungersi alle prestigiose collaborazioni di grandi personaggi ed artisti che segnano la storia ultracentenaria di Rubelli.

Molto veneziano, non soltanto perché, come i grandi pittori del Settecento quali Tiepolo e Tiziano celebra magnificamente l'incanto della luce e dell'acqua di una città unica, ma anche perché parte delle vendite andranno a sostenere l'associazione Venetian Heritage, di cui lo stesso Peter Marino è Presidente.

Wallcovering

Wall of Venice VI includes five textile items produced at the Rubelli mill in recycled polyester and natural fibres, and two wall coverings in vinyl, made in Italy and certified for contract and marine use.

Micro and macro textures, textural effects, sophisticated weaves, 3D patterns in neutral colours, also venturing into brighter shades in the vinyl.

Wall of Venice VI comprende cinque articoli "tessili" prodotti nella tessitura Rubelli e realizzati in poliestere riciclato e fibre naturali, e due rivestimenti murali in vinile, fatti in Italia e certificati per contract e navale.

Micro e macrotessure, effetti materici, intrecci ricercati, motivi tridimensionali declinati in colori neutri, ma con incursioni in colori più accesi nei vinilici.
